Text: Sorry for the delay in responding. I sent your docs to Yuri for review. He said that he would be back in town the 3rd which was yesterday and he would review them. I did see him yesterday and he said he would review everything in the next few days. (I gave him quite a lot of paperwork)

I expect him to get back to me today or tomorrow. When he does your package will go in to USPA/UPT. Figure no later then Monday.

Your papers are in limbo. Bill has everything and there is discussion on how to proceed. It might take a few days to sort out.

This is so bad you have no idea. A shit storm of epic magnitude is on us. USPA has suspended my membership license and ratings pending investigation.

So I guess if I want to work at a dz I can pack.

Text: I'm working on getting refunds to everyone.
Brad this is an enormous mess and it is literally going to ruin my life but I don't want anyone to get screwed.
I make $200 from each rating course but I'm having to refund the full amount. Thats 15k I don't have in my back pocket. Bill isn't going to refund a single dollar.
I'm trying to sell stuff but that takes a bit of time.

Text: Ignoring me is not going to make this go away, Rob. I need a gesture of good faith that you intend on making this situation right by repaying me the $1100 I paid you to conduct a viable UPT/USPA Tandem Instructor Training course. You are responsible for this because of the choice you made to surreptitiously conduct a course while being unsupervised and unqualified to conduct the course on your own. A good start would be to return, at minimum, the $200 profit you claimed from each prospective candidate. This would go a long way to demonstrate your integrity in the eyes of any judge you might wind up in front of.
